

Letter of Intent - Light House Link

Thank you for your interest in becoming a coworking member of the Light House Link creative entrepreneurship hub.

The Link is a hub for the creative community to connect, collaborate and cowork. Our mission is to nurture a community of diverse creatives who will work side-by-side to grow their artistic businesses, the creative economy and connected communities in Atlantic Canada. Situated in the new Light House Arts Centre at 1800 Argyle Street, The Link creative hub will bring together artists, creative entrepreneurs, not-for-profits and businesses under one roof to work, create and grow together.

Coworkers will have access to various work spaces including desks and comfortable seating, with options for quiet work or vibrant collaborative coworking. Wifi, printing, lockers and other amenities to ensure the space is ideal for small businesses and arts-based not-for-profits. It is being designed with and for the creative community, and as a member you will have ongoing opportunities to inform best uses and design of the space.

While the space is currently under construction, we expect to be open by winter 2022. When the space is ready, we will reach out to those who have a signed letter of intent with us, on a first-come-first serve basis, according to the date on this letter. By signing this letter, you will lock in the price of your first year of membership at our current reduced price on the accompanying sales sheet.
