

Become a member to access coworking, office space, meeting space, creation space & a creative community like no other.

The Link is a hub for the creative community to connect, collaborate and cowork. Our mission is to nurture a community of diverse creatives who will work side-by-side to grow their artistic businesses, the creative economy and grow supportive communities in Atlantic Canada.

Situated in the new Light House Arts Centre at 1800 Argyle Street, The Link creative hub will bring together artists, creative entrepreneurs, not-for-profits and businesses under one roof.

Facilities

- affordable coworking space for artists and entrepreneurs
- dedicated desks and offices for creative businesses and not-for-profits
- meeting and event spaces
- digital design, video, photo and audio creation and editing suites
- dance studio
- kitchenettes
- event services including digital live streaming

Programming

With a focus on delivering programming through collaborative partnerships, The Link will provide a range of programming for members and the creative sector designed to:

- support learning, business and organizational growth
- foster relationship building
- create opportunities for collaboration between members
- engage other creative communities, organizations and businesses

Focus on Diversity & Equity

The creative sector in Nova Scotia boasts a wide range of lived expertise. The Link will focus on recruiting members and partners from various cultural and linguistic backgrounds, artistic practices, gender identities, abilities, skill sets and lived experiences. The Link will be a unique space in downtown Halifax where creative minds from all walks of life will feel like they belong and are empowered to thrive.

Community Engagement

The Collective of Voices will act as a support and liaison between members, the community, and the staff and volunteers responsible for day-to-day activities at The Link.
